Doyon Shareholders Elect Board Members at Annual Meeting

Fairbanks, Alaska – Today at the Doyon, Limited annual meeting of shareholders, four individuals were elected to Doyon’s 13-member board of directors. Elected were incumbents Christopher Simon, Walter “Wally” Carlo and Jennifer Fate, as well as new board member Erica Frankson. Each seat has a three-year term, ending in 2018.

The newly elected and re-elected board members will join existing board members Shirley Cleaver, Lee DeWilde, Georgianna Lincoln, Esther McCarty, Victor Nicholas, Sonta Roach, PJ Simon Jr., Orie G. Williams, and Miranda Wright.

In addition to the election, annual meeting attendees heard reports on Doyon’s FY2014 performance, corporate initiatives and goals, and shareholder of the year awards.

The 2015 shareholder of the year award recipients include Jenny Pelkola, Hannah Paul Solomon Elder of the Year Award; Jessica Boyle Fields, Chief Andrew Isaac Leadership Award; Phillip Albert Jr., Daaga’ Community Service Award; Wanda Solomon, Richard Frank Military Service Award; and Lorraine Titus, Citizen of the Year.

Headquartered in Fairbanks, Doyon, Limited has more than 19,200 shareholders and was established under the 1971 Alaska Native Claims Settlement Act. Doyon, one of the top 10 Alaskan-owned companies with subsidiaries in oil field services, government contracting and tourism, is also the largest private landowner in Alaska and one of the largest in North America. Its mission is to continually enhance its position as a financially strong Native corporation in order to promote the economic and social well-being of its shareholders and future shareholders, to strengthen its Native way of life, and to protect and enhance its land and resources.
