Doyon, Limited Shareholders Elect Four Board Members at Annual Meeting

Fairbanks, Alaska – Today at Doyon, Limited’s annual meeting of shareholders, four individuals were elected to Doyon’s 13-member board of directors. Elected were Jerry Isaac, Miranda Wright, Sonta Hamilton Roach and Brian Ridley . Each seat has a three-year term, ending in 2018.

The newly elected and re-elected board members will join existing board members Wally Carlo, Jennifer Fate, Erica Frankson, Georgianna Lincoln, Esther McCarty, Victor Nicholas, Christopher Simon, Pollock “PJ” Simon, Jr. and Orie Williams.

Doyon’s shareholders were given reports on the company’s FY2015 performance, corporate initiatives and goals and shareholder of the year awards.

The annual meeting keynote address was delivered by Doyon shareholder, teacher, coach and Yukon 800 winner, Arnold Marks of Tanana. Marks’ message was about the value of time and energy and giving both to others.

Shareholder of the year award recipients are the following: Elizabeth Fleagle, Hannah Paul Solomon Elder Award; Floyd Leroy Green, III, Chief Andrew Isaac Leadership Award; Shirley Lee, Daaga Community Service Award; Sherman Thomas, Richard Frank Military Service Award; and Andrea Durny, Citizen of the Year Award.

Headquartered in Fairbanks, Doyon, Limited has more than 19,300 shareholders and was established under the 1971 Alaska Native Claims Settlement Act. Doyon, one of the top 10 Alaskan-owned companies with subsidiaries in oilfield services, government contracting, and tourism, is also the largest private landowner in Alaska and one of the largest in North America. Its mission is to continually enhance its position as a financially strong Native corporation in order to promote the economic and social well-being of its shareholders and future shareholders, to strengthen its Native way of life, and to protect and enhance its land and resources.
