Doyon to Hold Annual Shareholders Meeting on March 17
2017 Theme is "A Dynamic Force"

Fairbanks, Alaska – Doyon, Limited will hold its annual meeting of shareholders on Friday, March 17, 2017 at the Westmark Hotel in Fairbanks. The doors will open at 8 a.m. and the meeting will begin and 9 a.m.

The main item of business will be the election of five members to the 13-member Doyon board of directors. Doyon shareholders will also hear reports from the board and management on Doyon's fiscal year 2016 performance, current initiatives and shareholder of the year awards.

The keynote speakers for the meeting are Doyon shareholders, Krysten Walker and Martin Sensmeier. Walker is currently completing her senior year at Stanford University where she is pursuing a Bachelor of Science in Science, Technology & Society. After graduation, Walker plans to serve in the Peace Corps as a science teacher in Sierra Leone. Sensmeier moved to Los Angeles to pursue his dream of becoming an actor. He recently acted in the remake of The Magnificent Seven in the role of Red Harvest.

Please note: As Doyon is a private corporation, the meeting is closed to the general public. However, Doyon will provide time for the press to obtain interviews and footage between 8 and 9 a.m. at the meeting. Please contact the communications department at 907-459-2124 to schedule.

Headquartered in Fairbanks, Doyon, Limited has more than 19,600 shareholders and was established under the 1971 Alaska Native Claims Settlement Act. Doyon, one of the top 10 Alaskan-owned companies with subsidiaries in oilfield services, government contracting, and tourism, is also the largest private landowner in Alaska and one of the largest in North America. Its mission is to continually enhance its position as a financially strong Native corporation in order to promote the economic and social well-being of its shareholders and future shareholders, to strengthen its Native way of life, and to protect and enhance its land and resources.
