Doyon Shareholders Elect Five Board Members at Annual Meeting

Fairbanks, Alaska – Today at Doyon, Limited’s annual meeting of shareholders, five individuals were elected to Doyon’s 13-member board of directors. Elected were Shirley Cleaver, Georgianna Lincoln, Ori G. Williams, Pollack “PJ” Simon, Jr., and Esther McCarty. Each seat has a three-year term ending in 2020.

The newly elected and re-elected board members will join existing board members Wally Carlo, Jennifer Fate, Erica Frankson, Sonta Hamilton Roach, Jerry Isaac, Brian Ridley, Christopher Simon and Miranda Wright.

The main items of business were the election of the five board members, reports on the company’s FY2016 financial performance, corporate initiatives, goals and shareholder of the year awards.

The keynote address was delivered by Doyon class C shareholders, Krysten Walker and Martin Sensmier. Walker reflected on the annual meeting theme, noting that innovation, persistence and hard work will get you to where you’re meant to be. Sensmier delivered the message of overcoming obstacles and not forgetting where you come from. He emphasized the importance of community wellness and providing a safe environment for children and each other.

Shareholder of the year award recipients are Eileen Julia Mahler, Citizen of the Year Award; Tristan Jovan Madros, Chief Andrew Isaac Leadership Award; and Kelly Shewfelt Turner, Richard Frank Military Service Award.

Please note: As Doyon is a private corporation, the meeting is closed to the general public. However, Doyon will provide time for the press to obtain interviews and footage between 8 and 9 a.m. at the meeting. Please contact the communications department at 907-459-2124 to schedule.

Headquartered in Fairbanks, Doyon, Limited has more than 19,600 shareholders and was established under the 1971 Alaska Native Claims Settlement Act. Doyon, one of the top 10 Alaskan-owned companies with subsidiaries in oilfield services, government contracting, and tourism, is also the
